

Italy Gala 2012

“Made in Italy triumphs in New York”

New York, February 23, 2012 - In the prestigious frame of the Marriott Marquis Hotel in New York was held under the patronage of the Italian Ambassador in Washington, Claudio Bisogniero, and the Ministry of Economic Development, the XXVII° edition of the "Italy Gala ", a prestigious event organized by the Italian Wine and Food Institute, with the aim of promoting Italian excellence in the United States, and delegates each year, the companies most prestigious Made in Italy.

Cav. Emilio Candiani (to the right), general manager and vice-president of OMEA S.r.l., with his son Luigi (to the left), chief marketing officer of the Company, in the Broadway Ballroom of the Marriott Marquis hotel.

OMEA-Coinage of Art has accepted the invitation of Dr. Lucio Caputo, President of the Italian Wine and Food Institute, exposing in the lifestyle section, a selection of his creations, including the latest series dedicated to the Kings and Presidents of the 150° anniversary of the unification of Italy, arousing the interest and curiosity of the guests and many professionals who had crowded the space OMEA.

An image of the series “All the Kings and Presidents of Italy” exposed at Gala.

At the event, which was attended by over 2,000 accredited guests, have participated the largest importers, producers and journalists from all states in the U.S. Atlantic coast, who crowded the Broadway ballroom at the sixth floor of the Marriott. Among the distinguished guests, the event also saw the participation of the Italian Consul General in New York, Dr. Natalia Quintavalle.

Other image dedicated at the series

At the end of the event the President, Dr. Lucio Caputo, recognized the Gala Italia 2012 as << one of the most successful editions that, from year to year, is always able to make an important contribution to develop the image of Made in Italy in the United States >> again next year with an edition that promises already full of interesting news.

Images of some articles Scuderia Ferrari. OMEA, in addition to study and implement the current logo the "prancing horse", has produced for a long time in its factory, more articles with the emblem of the Scuderia Ferrari.